

Lyric Opera Studio Weimar COVID-19 Refund Policy

Weimar, October 14, 2020

The safety of our participants and faculty is Lyric Opera Studio Weimar's first priority. We would like to inform you that at this time, our 2021 winter session (February – March 2021) and our summer sessions (June – August 2021) will proceed as scheduled.

In hoping that, by our February 2021 session, the authorities indicate that it is safe to travel, we would like to assure you of our plans. We realize this is a fluid situation and should the government of Germany maintain that the virus is still prevalent to an unacceptable level, full refunds of tuition will then be issued to all participants in the 2021 sessions (as they have been for the 2020 sessions.)

Should you apply to the Studio, and should you be offered a role, you will receive an official contract. In this contract between you and Lyric Opera Studio Weimar, there will clearly be a standard 'force majeure' clause to ensure refunds in the case that the pandemic legally prohibits travel, or the Studio from occurring.

We realize that the present circumstances of the viral threat are continuing to alter the world situation. We hope this helps to address any concerns you might have, and we look forward your application to the 2021 Studio.

Damon Nestor Ploumis
General Director